Mi-Kyung Kim is most well known for her incredibly refined style in Korea. From her works, people might expect her to be a quiet and homebody type, but she is quite the opposite - extremely outgoing and active.

How did you come up with the title "The Cat"?

I just wanted to have a very cute title. (lol) Also it means there are kind of 11 characters in the story.

You must like cats a lot.
Of course. I used to be a dog person, but I've slowly started liking cats more. My family doesn't know it yet though. I have one cat right now that I picked up on the street, and my housemate has two. So we have 3 cats at our place.

You draw such cute characters. What do you think is the cutest thing about yourself?
Everything about me is cute (wink) (PHEHE)

What's the most difficult part of the entire comic-making process?
Probably coloring and rough drawings. Once the main outline scene is, it's very difficult to progress onto the next scenes. It's like it's almost done but you can't stop because you will reach someone's opinion and can't stop on the next scene.

What do you do if you mess up an illustration of the story itself?
I usually like to wait for more time and start fresh again... (Although in a lot of cases, because of time constraints, I try to fix it using computer CG). One time, I spilled ink on an illustration while cleaning up the final after everything was done. I instantly lost my mind... (x)

Come along on the sweet adventure with the cutest wizard ever, Rika!

A cute fantasy adventure of an adorable novice wizard, Rika, and her strange companion, Hori.

Let's follow their exciting journey to become a true wizard.

1 Rika A novice wizard-in-training who's clumsy and a bit naive because of her clumsiness. She comes across a guardian spirit, Hori, and travels together to become a true wizard.

2 Hori Childhood friend of Rika. He ends up saving her from trouble all the time. He is very protective of her, but also gets on her a bit which causes Rika to get upset at him often.

3 Hori (Guardian Spirit of Black Witches) A cat guardian spirit that came out of the Black Witches. He likes Rika since she's the first true owner of the witchstone, and Hori's alongside her MA's love and obsession, but has quite powerful powers despite his appearance.

4 Silver Master of Black Mage A mysterious character who seems to be in the middle of everything that's going on with Rika. He saved Rika once, but his intention is unclear.

The Cutest Characters from the Cutest Creator!

Mi-Kyung Kim has captured a huge fanbase and rising popularity for her cute artwork ever since her initial debut in 1997. However, an even more amazing achievement can be seen in the Dongdaemun market where her name alone will bring fans to buy the books without even knowing what the book is about. «11th City» is her first ongoing series in Maroon anthology.

Q. How would you describe this series?

A. Hm. That's quite a difficult question. Usually when it points out one element about a series, readers tend to focus on that element only, and don't see anything else that is on-going in the story. So I suggest readers to find out about my manhwa rather than listening to me describe it.

Q. Tell us about your experience with your first ongoing series.

A. It is nice to be in a bigger and longer running project. I felt that I am accomplishing a lot and not wasting any time (although I did slack off here and there). However I am more grateful for all the new colleagues and how I meet from working on the project. I even had an apartment for the first time in my life for a while.

Q. What is this photo?

A. It is me holding my cat, Mia. Ever since the photo was taken, I started using the camera (Digital cameras are great, but with film cameras, it feels more like you are really taking pictures.) Sorry for the weird pose of Mia. (lol)

Q. Who are your favorite and least favorite characters in your manhwa?

A. Well, I liked the Sword Master and Rom, and my favorite is of course the Dark Prince. The Sword Master and Rom both were too much black, that's why I am writing first of them. But if they don't appear from the pages look too light, so they balance the black and white value of the pages.

Q. Did you have a model for any of your characters?

R. Model Our cats. Although they don't look the same because it was too hard to draw them like how they really look. So I drew them a little simpler and rounder and rounder.

Q. Can you share any interesting story that happened while working on this project?

R. haha I usually hang out in the one online community. I never mentioned anything about manhwa is there, but one day, somehow people found out. So I was pummeled with comments and questions. (I was stupid! I mean, my photos are printed right on the book, and I thought people wouldn't recognize me. --")

Q. Does the Doujinshi world have any special meaning to you? If possible, why you are still more active in Doujinshi market even after your professional debut.

A. It's not because Doujinshi has any special meaning. It's just the freedom that I enjoy. You can create anything you want in Doujinshi, including parodies of other properties. Even when working on original material, you have more freedom than if it were a commercial market. I missed saying that commercial market is not fun, but I just think there is more variety and freedom in the Doujinshi market.

Q. Any last words?

A. I'm sorry for being late on e-mail replies. It's not good at that. I think I'm going to reply today... then today becomes a week... and then that becomes a month... and then it feels awkward to reply that late, so I'm away from them...

I would like to thank everyone who read my first ongoing market. And special thanks to all the colleagues and publishing staffs who have been pulling up with me and helping me to make a better market. Thank you so much.
